

How does where we live in the UK affect how we live and what we do?

Key Vocabulary & Concepts
Key Word	Definition
urban	a place with lots of buildings and people rural	a place with fields, farms and fewer people capital city	the city where the country's government is based coast	the land next to the sea river	a long, flowing stream of water that begins on land and ends in the sea mountain	a very tall hill that rises high above the land port	a place by the sea of a river where ships load and unload goods trade	when people or countries buy, sell or swap things with each other settlement	a place where people live transport	ways of moving people or goods from place to place

My knowledge...
1. What makes an area in the UK urban or rural?	2. What seas surround the UK?
3. What are the UK's key physical features?	4. Why do people live near rivers and coasts?
5. Why do we import goods?	 The map shows the United Kingdom with labels for Edinburgh, Belfast, Cardiff, Scotland, Northern Ireland, Ireland, Wales, England, London, North Sea, Irish Sea, English Channel, and Atlantic Ocean. A ship is also shown in the Atlantic Ocean.